

CEDAR RAPIDS

Tim

I used to worship these guys, you know. I thought they were like, terrific and important and like...(Sniffs Blow) And like, they were good to other people and like they did the right thing and they were special like the Founding Fathers of America, you know?

Bree

Like Thomas Jefferson.

Tim

Yes! NTS.....Bree, not too shabby.....You're smart. You are. And you're pretty, and you're sweet, and you're insightful. You're insightful like a guidance counselor.

Bree

(Laughing.)

Tim

And your smile, just then, when you do that. Don't do that 'cause it makes me like, happy. Too happy. And you don't have to do those things that you do with, like, strangers. You're good and you don't need to do that.

Bree

You're so sweet, Tim. But you know, we're all just selling something. A fuck, you know, dope, insurance. I mean, what about that guy you had to bribe for that award or whatever? It's like we're all just selling something.

Tim

I know, and it's a major bummer. You just bummed me out. What you said just bummed me out. I'm so bummed out right now.

(Laughing)
