FLYNN

What's that bird complaining about?

What kind of bird is that? That a starling? A grackle?

SISTER JAMES

A crow.

FLYNN

Course it is. Are you praying? I didn't mean to interrupt.

SISTER JAMES

I'm not praying. No.

FLYNN

You seem subdued.

SISTER JAMES

Oh, I can't sleep.

FLYNN

Why not?

SISTER JAMES

Bad dreams.

FLYNN

Yeah, I can't sleep on occasion.

DOUBT

SISTER JAMES

Why? Do you see that big hand pointing a finger at you?

FLYNN

Yes. Sometimes.

SISTER JAMES

Was your sermon directed at anyone in particular?

FLYNN

What do you think?

SISTER JAMES

I received a letter from my brother in Maryland. He's very sick.

FLYNN

Then maybe you should go and see him.

SISTER JAMES

I can't leave my class. Is it true?

FLYNN

What?

SISTER JAMES

You know what I'm asking.

FLYNN

No.

DOUBT

SISTER JAMES

I saw you put an undershirt in Donald Miller's locker.

FLYNN

He left it in the sacristy.

SISTER JAMES

Why didn't you hand it to him?

FLYNN

I'm trying to spare him further embarrassment. It's me that cares about that child, not her. Has she ever reached out a hand? That black boy needs help or he's not gonna make it. If she has her way, he'll be left to his own undoing. Why do you think he drank the wine? He's in trouble. And she sees me talk in a human way to these kids and she immediately assumes that there must be something wrong with it. Well, I'm not gonna let her keep this parish in the Dark Ages, and I'm not gonna let her destroy my spirit of compassion.

DOUBT

SISTER JAMES
I'm sure that's not her intent.

FLYNN
That I care about this congregation.

SISTER JAMES
I know you do.

FLYNN
Like you care about your class. You love them, don't you?

SISTER JAMES
Yes.

FLYNN
And that's natural. How else would you relate to children? Now, I can look at your face and know your philosophy.
It's kindness.

SISTER JAMES
I don't know. I mean, of course.

FLYNN

There are people who go after your humanity, Sister, that tell you that the light in your heart is a weakness. Don't believe it. It's an old tactic of cruel people to kill kindness in the name of virtue. There's nothing wrong with love.

SISTER JAMES

Love?

FLYNN

Have you forgotten the message of our Savior? It's love of people.

SISTER JAMES

I just feel as if everything is upside down.

FLYNN

There are just times in life when we feel lost. It happens.

SISTER JAMES

And it's a bond. Flowers.

FLYNN

Yeah. To remind me of spring.

SISTER JAMES

I should be going.

FLYNN

I'm sorry your brother's ill.

SISTER JAMES

Thank you, Father. I don't believe it.

FLYNN

You don't?

SISTER JAMES

No.

FLYNN

Thank you, Sister. Thank you very much.
