Boys On The Side (Scene 3)

Jane

Hey, good morning. How's it going?

Robin

Great.

Jane

How was last night?

Robin

It was good.

Jane

Good. Is Alex still here?

Robin

No, he's gone.

Jane

So, you had a good time, huh?

Robin

Real good till I found out you told him I have HIV.

Jane

I didn't exactly tell him, you know.

Robin

No, I know. He guessed. You know, she looks like the kind of girl who tested positive for the AIDS virus. I don't know, she's got that kind of... glow.

Jane

It slipped out.

Robin

What did you think you were doing setting me up like that?

Jane

I thought I was doing a good thing. I mean, I know you like him, he likes you.

Robin

Yeah great. Maybe he'll ask me to go steady. Maybe he'll take me to the prom.

Jane

Come on.

Robin

What do you think I am, stupid?

Jane

No, I don't think that at all.

Robin

You think you can just put a man in my bed and I'll forget? All it does, if you want to know, all it does is remind me. Alex and you and Holly and her baby, every living thing I see reminds me.

Jane

So what are you going to do? You going to hide out in the house? Lock yourself away? Come on!

Robin

You don't know anything about it and anyway, it'd none of your business. You're the one that's in love with somebody you can never have.

Jane

Do me a favor, ok? I'll stay out of your love life and you stay out of mine.

Robin

Not just my love life, my life. Stay out of my life.

Jane

Meaning what?

Robin

That means maybe this isn't working. Maybe you should move.

Jane

Ok.

Robin

And take that fucking piano. If you don't I'll leave it out in the rain. I swear to God I will.
